Please could you remove the advert "Art for You" from the Village Noticeboard? The advertising has been totally successful and all the classes are now full. Thank you so much for your help.

Hi Maria

The Guide seems to be going from strength to strength. I was talking to a decorator some while back and suggested he used your guide and after doing so, low and behold his books are full.

Well done for providing this valuable local service.

I wondered if you would be so kind as to insert the attached advert into your community pages in the Grimsargh & Goosnargh Guide. Thanks ever so much.

Steve Fairhurst – Pastoral Leader, Trinity Methodists

The magazine looks really professional. The children at school loved appearing in the report you did for the community pages. We all thank you so much.

Mrs Butters - Goosnargh Resident

Its Great! We always discuss the restaurant reviews with the mums outside school. I know its being used by residents and that's why I continue to advertise..

Liz Hindley – Grimsargh resident & Advertiser great little Houghton Handbook. An interesting local read & packed with local services.

Hi Maria

I have found Miti hidden in QTS's " The Last Word....." picture in front of the digger with Richard Bickerstaffe's two Labradors.

Comments From Businesses

The Handbooks are fantastic for advertising locally and it's great to have that community connection. Customers trust The Handbook and are therefore friendly when I turn up on the doorstep.

Tim Mullock - TDM Tiling

I receive enough business from The Guides that I do not need to advertise anywhere else.

R. Allan Richardson - Joinery & Maintenance

The Guides is a good local publication, it is interesting and inviting to read. We advertise every month because it reaches the right people locally who like to shop at our Nursery. We always get a good response from our advert.

Joan Cartmell – Oak Nurseries

I get a fantastic rate of response from advertising and The Handbooks are by far the most productive way of advertising for me.

Ian Whiteside - Chips Away

I would like to thank you for the extra business that the Guide has generated for me. I paid for the cost of the advert in the first week of distribution & will continue to use your services to inform the local area of my business

I have been advertising in The Handbooks every month now for two years. The volume of work I get has taken me by surprise. The quality and content is like no other free magazine that I get through my door.

Phil Gale - Philip Gale Upholstery

I have featured in The Handbooks every month for over a year and I turn down as much business as I accept. I don't need to advertise anywhere else and would definitely recommend it to others.

Tony Sadler - AJS Painting & Decorating

I advertise every month and like the fact that I can change my advert each time. The prices are extremely reasonable and the magazine is absolutely brilliant for small businesses.
