Garden View

This month – Open your garden

This month I'm going to talk about The National Garden Scheme. This wonderful initiative gives garden-lovers unique access to more than 3,500 exceptional private gardens in England and Wales. It also raises money for nursing and health charities through admission fees, teas and cake. Beneficiaries include Macmillan Cancer Support, Marie Curie, Hospice UK and The Queen's Nursing Institute.

By opening your garden to visitors, you'll give people a great day out, and raise money to help those in need. Even better you'll connect with a community of like-minded garden-owners, all passionate about their beautiful gardens.

Is your garden worth visiting?

Do friends and family wax lyrical about your plot? Do neighbours ask for advice and cuttings? Do you sometimes wish you could show other people the result of all your hard work? If you answered yes to these questions, then it's very likely other people would love to see your garden too.

It might seem a somewhat daunting experience but opening your garden to the public can be very enjoyable. Many people get the bug and open their gardens year after year. Most people start by opening once in a year, but many go on to open twice a year, to show off their garden in different seasons.

You don't need a big garden. There are some tiny plots in the NGS. What matters is quality, character and interest.

NGS will support you all the way with their network of helpful, friendly volunteers. Initially you'll be visited by one of the team during the season you feel your garden would look best.

And if you don't feel as though garden is worthy of being part of the scheme, why not visit open gardens in your area to gain inspiration, hints and tips, make new gardening friends, and raise a bit of money for charity.

Happy gardening!

Recipe Idea

Spinach and Feta Frittata

Preparation time: 15 minutes

Cooking Time: 15 minutes

Serves 4-6

Ingredients

2 tablespoons olive oil
1 medium shallot, finely chopped (about 2 tablespoons)
1 medium clove garlic, finely chopped (about 1 teaspoon)
1 (5-ounce) bag baby spinach
1 tablespoon finely chopped fresh flat-leaved parsley or basil.
Sea salt and freshly ground black pepper
10 eggs, beaten
1/4 cup milk
3/4 cup (about 3.5 ounces) crumbled feta

Method

Preheat the grill. Heat olive oil in an 8-inch pan over a medium high heat. Add chopped shallots and cook for 2-3 minutes beginning to soften. Add garlic and continue to cook for a further two minutes until softened. Add spinach and parsley (or basil) and cook, tossing often until spinach is fully wilted and any water released by the spinach has cooked off.

Season to taste with salt and pepper. In a large bowl, beat eggs and milk with a whisk until mixed together. Don't over-beat. Add feta, and season with salt and pepper. Pour egg mixture over spinach then gently stir with a spatula to release the spinach from the bottom of the pan so that the eggs are in direct contact with the surface of the pan, so they cook quickly. Cook until the eggs are almost totally set (this takes 10-12 minutes), reducing heat to prevent burning. Place pan under the grill for a couple of minutes, until the top is set as well, keeping a close eye on it so it does not burn. To release the frittata from the pan, loosen edges with a spatula. Place a dinner plate over pan, and holding plate firmly flip the pan over so the frittata releases onto the plate. Serve warm.

Fact of the Day

Did you know that Stewardesses is the longest word typed with only the left hand.

A Brief History Of ... St Georges Day

'Cry God for England, Harry and St George!' Those immortal words are from Shakespeare's Henry V but who was St George and how did he become patron saint of England? St George was a Roman soldier who lived in the 3rd century AD. At the end of the century the Emperor Diocletian persecuted Christians and St George was martyred in 303 AD.

The cult of St George was brought to England from the Middle East by the crusaders. (St George was popular with the crusaders because he was a soldier). He is supposed to have appeared to them at Antioch in 1098.

St Georges Day, 23 April was set by the synod of Oxford in 1222. Meanwhile he was growing in popularity in England. By the 14th century St George was seen as England's saint.

In the Middle Ages some people formed religious guilds. They prayed for dead members souls and provided charity. Many were dedicated to St George. On St George's day in many places effigies of St George were taken out of the local church and paraded around the parish. Furthermore in the Middle Ages the legend of St George and the dragon grew up. Many places also paraded a model dragon.

However after the Reformation the cult of the saints was swept away in England and St George lost much of his importance. Unlike many national saints St George has been neglected. However recently St Georges Day has been revived as a patriotic symbol.

St George is also the patron saint of Catalonia.

Family Roofing Business You Can Trust

Professionalism, years of experience, the highest quality work a good work force plus attractive prices, these are the reasons why SN Roofing has become a trusted roofing company.

The company was founded by Stephen O'Meara and employs son Nick to work alongside. Stephen believes a family run business is the best way forward offering a reasonable and reliable service. He says "We are always professional, polite, courteous and listen to what the customer wants. Our advice is free and we will always give free quotations for any size of job and will not be beaten on like-for-like quotations."

SN Roofing can tackle any kind of roofing work covering slate, tile & flat roofs from a leaking flat roof repair to total roof replacements. Chimney & ridge tile pointing, dry ridge system installations, porch & dormer roofs. In addition, SN Roofing also supply and fit UPVC guttering, fascias and soffits, roof lights and lead work plus Velux window installation.

Flat Roofs are covered using synthetic rubber from tyre giants Firestone RubberCover which has a 20 year material warranty and can last upto 50 years.

So whatever your roofing needs contact Steve & Nick at SN Roofing to make an appointment for a free estimate at a time that suits you. 01772 379273

Book Review

A Good Read

One Day by David Nicholls

Ah, the hazy days of university. When we are young, with the responsibilities of a family far in the distance, full of potential, with the world at our feet. How many of us sat around with our friends and thought about what our lives would be like when we were 40. Would we be happy? Would we be married with children? Would we even still be friends?

Dexter and Emma are both studying at Edinburgh University and on following their graduation they spend the night together. Both have dreams and plans and they wonder what their lives will be like in the future. This night marks the beginning of their friendship. A friendship that is revisited in the book every 15th July for 20 years.

This is an interesting format for a novel: one chapter for each day. We see nothing of what happens in the intervening 364 days and are left to deduce what happened from the text. Will their lives turn out as they hoped – will Emma improve the world as she wanted to on that first 15th July?

Life, it is clear, never quite turns out as we planned. As joy and tragedy play out for the reader, we are reminded that events have a habit of not asking us for permission first and taking us down a different path.

Heidi by Johanna Spyri

There are some books that remain forever imprinted on our memories and often those strongest memories are the ones of the books we read as children. We may not remember the details but there is something special about sitting, curled up as a child, and allowing ourselves to be transported to another world, away from homework, parents, and annoying siblings.

One such novel is Heidi. Few who have read it can forget young Heidi being dragged up the hill by Aunt Dete to be left with her grandfather in a small house near the village of Dorfli. Or the moment that her hard-hearted grandfather gives little Heidi his own bed, showing a small level of affection for his orphaned granddaughter. How many of us will have longed to run freely across the Swiss Alps with Peter and his herd of goats? And of course, there is that magical moment when the fresh mountain air helps the sickly Clara to walk again.

Sometimes lost among more modern 21st century books, perhaps now is the time to introduce this loveable young heroine to your children?

Spring is upon us and your grass is ready to wake up and get growing! Here are some expert tips from Greensleeves Lawn Care on how to ensure your lawn gets the best at the start of the season, setting it up for summer.

Aeration is the perfect treatment for the beginning of the growing season. It removes small plugs of soil from the ground, allowing nutrients, water and air to reach the roots of your grass. It also prevents soil from becoming compact, helping to absorb and retain water in preparation for potential dry weather in summer. It's the perfect way to give your grass a kick-start this spring.

As well as aeration, Spring is a great time for overseeding. Seeds are ready to grow, so overseeding helps your grass to recover from winter, filling in patches and increasing the thickness of your lawn. It rejuvenates patches that have developed over winter and prepares for summer; thick grass is much better protected against scorching from hot sunshine.

If moss has built up on your lawn over winter, a moss control and scarification treatment will remove the discolouration and help your grass to grow during spring – without being weighed down by thatch. It's a great time to scarify your lawn; because your grass is active at this time of year, it can quickly recover.

Greensleeves offer many lawn care services, including our specialist spring treatment. Get in touch to speak to an expert or to arrange an appointment!

PER TREATMENT

Your first choice for lawn care

2018 was a difficult year for your garden. Extreme weather conditions resulted in lawns that didn't look their best.

As we move towards the growing season, now is the time to start preparing your lawn to get the most from it. Our seasonal treatments start from just £15*.

Due to high demand, and to avoid disappointment, we advise that you book your treatments early.

If you think your lawn is beyond repair due to last year's sweltering summer, ask us about our Lawn Makeover - the best way to get 'The GreenThumb lawn.'

For your FREE lawn analysis & no-obligation quote, contact your local branch today.

Simply call 0800 0111 222
