Changes to Green Waste charges

South Ribble are reducing the cost of green waste collection from next year from £30 to £25, every little helps I guess!!! Over 26,000 residents have bought into the scheme that helps recycling rates in the borough, currently around 45%, the second highest rate in Lancashire behind Fylde.

By Election Result

The Coupe Green and Gregson Lane by election was won by Walton Le Dale resident Garath Watson with 437 votes, Graham Dixon as the Independent came second with 343 votes with the Liberal Stephanie Portersmith came third with 110 votes. Labour sadly didn't put up a candidate but did assist Graham at the count.

Cross Borough Link Road Finally Open

After yet another last minute delay the Cross Borough Link Road is finally set to open as we go to print, the highway has been built between Carwood Road in Walton-le-Dale and The Cawsey/Leyland Road in Penwortham in order to open up housing and ease congestion in the area. The surrounding roads that have been under pressure for many years through the sheer volume of traffic should ease, in particular at the Tardy Gate junction where standing traffic has caused air quality concerns for local residents.

Bonfire and Firework display - Round Table

I'm sure many people will be looking forward to the annual bonfire events at Walton Le Dale Recreation Park or Gregson Lane Playing Fields, organised events are the safest and best way to take part. If you miss one of the local events over the weekend the largest event in the borough is at Worden Park, run by the Round Table.

Dogs, cats and fireworks

- Always keep dogs and cats inside when fireworks are being let off
- Make sure your dog is walked earlier in the day before the fireworks start
- Close all windows and doors, and block off catflaps to stop pets escaping and to keep noise to a minimum. Draw the curtains, and if the animals are used to the sounds of TV or radio, switch them on (but not too loudly) in order to block out some of the noise of the fireworks.

- Prepare a 'den' for your pet where it can feel safe and comfortable – perhaps under a bed with some of your old clothes. They may like to hide there when the fireworks start.
- Stay calm, act normally and give lots of praise for calm behaviour. It's OK to cuddle and stroke your pet if it helps them relax, but if they prefer to hide under your bed, then let them do this instead.
- Avoid leaving your pet alone during such potentially upsetting events. If you do have to leave the house, don't get angry with your pet if you find they have been destructive or toileted after being left on its own. Shouting at a frightened pet will only make them more stressed.
- Don't tie your dog up outside while fireworks are being let off, ie outside a shop while you pop inside, or leave them in the garden or in your car.
- Never take your dog to a fireworks display. Even if they don't bark or whimper at the noise, it doesn't mean they are happy. Excessive panting and yawning can indicate that your dog is stressed.

Fact of the Day

Did you know that our eyes are always the same size from birth, but our nose and ears never stop growing.

A Brief History Of ... Remembrance Day

Remembrance Day, also known as Poppy Day, Armistice Day, or Veteran's Day, is a memorial day celebrated by all Commonwealth countries. It is a day to honour and remember the brave civilians and members of the armed forces.

November 11 was selected to commemorate the end of World War I in 1918. The war officially ended on the 11th month, 11th day, and finally, the 11th hour. At this time, the Germans signed the Armistice which ended it officially.

The poppy is a significant part of this day because of the world famous poem written by fellow Canadian, Lt Colonel John McRae. In Flanders Field was written the day after McRae witnessed his best friend die, Lieutenant Alexis Helmer. The fields were filled with the bright red poppies and it is now why we wear one each year to commemorate the wars.

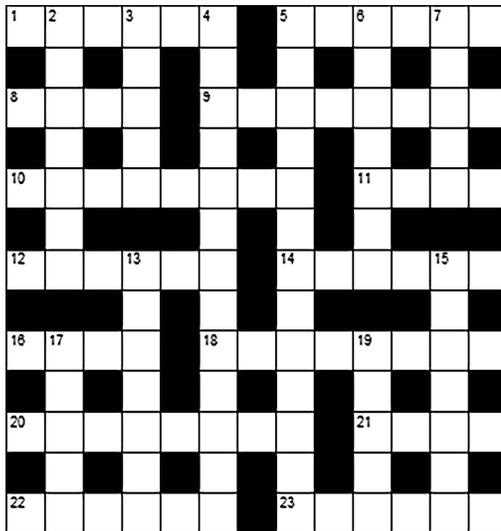

Currently, there are 54 Commonwealth states including

Canada, the United Kingdom, Australia, Zambia, and Uganda. Prior to 1931, Newfoundland was a Commonwealth member- before they officially joined Canada.

There is a site through Veterans Affairs Canada with a 'Canadian Virtual War Memorial' where you can find the names of soldiers who died as a result of the war. You can search for soldiers from the Cape Breton, Nova Scotia area.

Book Review

A Good Read

The Seven Deaths of Evelyn Hardcastle

by Stuart Turton

Murder mystery stories have been popular for centuries. However, I would say that you have probably never come across a murder mystery story quite like this. Debut author, Stuart Turton, admits to being inspired by the novels of Agatha Christie, but this is far from the likes of Miss Marple or Hercule Poirot.

Set in a large country house in the early 20th century our protagonist wakes up in the middle of a wood. He is not wearing his own clothes and he soon realises that he is not in his own body. Confused by what is going on he hears a gun shot and stumbles his way through the wood to Blackheath House. He is greeted by a man who calls him Sebastian Bell, but this name means nothing to him. Eventually he is visited by a mysterious man in a plague doctor's mask.

Our protagonist is called Aidan Bishop and he has until the end of the day to solve a murder. If he fails then the day will start all over again, but this time Aidan will not be Sebastian Bell. He will live the same day over in eight different 'hosts' and so he has eight days to solve the murder of Evelyn Hardcastle.

Evelyn has been murdered hundreds of times.

Part Agatha Christie, part Quantum Leap, this novel will keep you guessing with plot twists appearing throughout. Oh, and expect to feel confused: Turton has done a stunning job of weaving the eight different days together. Just go with it and enjoy the journey!

Enchanted Palace by Rosie Banks

It is clear from the minute you look at this book who it is aimed at. A pink and sparkly cover welcomes young readers into the world of 'The Secret Kingdom'. This is the first instalment of this successful series of books that follow the adventures of best friends Ellie, Summer, and Jasmine.

As the book begins, the three friends are helping their teacher run a stall at their local jumble sale. As they are packing up, they find a strange-looking locked wooden box. Too late to sell it they take it home with them to try and open. What happens when they do shows them a world they never knew existed: The Secret Kingdom.

King Merry needs their help. His wicked sister, Queen Malice is plotting to destroy the kingdom and turn it from a joyful place, full of unicorns, fairies, and mermaids, into a dull and dreary land, making everyone as miserable as she is.

Can Ellie, Summer, and Jasmine, solve the riddles that will let them save the Secret Kingdom from the Queen? Join them on an adventure of a lifetime, riding on the backs of the royal swans and rainbow slides.

This month - Pots of cabbage!

November can be a bit of a grey, miserable month. My kids would call it 'meh'. I like to inject some colour with winter bedding plants. A cheerful pot by the front door can make you smile on the gloomiest morning. Obviously, the choice of plants for winter is not as large as during the summer months but there are enough varieties around to make very attractive combinations for pots. My favourite plant for winter pots has to be the ornamental cabbage. These robust beauties come in wonderful colours including cream, pink and purple – with either attractive frilly or very spiky leaves. They pair beautifully with winter-flowering pansies and hardy cyclamen.

Try planting three pots of different sizes using a colour scheme which co-ordinates with the cabbages. Plant a 50cm / 20inch pot with four large ornamental frilly cabbages surrounding a central spiky one, to give some height to the display. Then choose a smaller pot (38cm / 15inches) and plant one frilly ornamental cabbage surrounded by pink and purple winter-flowering pansies. Finally plant a small pot (25cm / 10inches) with a mixture of hardy cyclamen and white pansies. The resulting display will give you pleasure through November, December and January.

Tips

Select a frostproof container because these pots need to withstand wintery conditions. The most dependable pots are made of fibreglass, lead, iron, heavy plastic, or stone. Most terracotta will crack in cold temperatures, but some glazed varieties are frost-proof.

Use a good general-purpose compost. There are mixes specifically made for use in containers, which provide the essential drainage that plants living in pots need.

Make sure you place plenty of drainage material in the bottom of the pots.

A good compost will contain enough slow release fertiliser to maintain the plants for several weeks during autumn and winter. If they still going strong as winter turns to you can give them a bit of a feed, but by February or March you will want to think about replanting your pots with spring bedding.

Think about gravel – I like to use a layer of gravel over the soil of my winter pots for several reasons. It gives the planted pots an attractive finish, keeps rain from splashing back on to the plants, provides some insulation for the soil and reflects light and warmth in any winter sun thus creating a little microclimate in which the plants will be happier.

Water them! The plants will need moisture around their roots so water as needed unless the soil in the container is frozen. Do not water frozen pots because the plants are unable to absorb the water.

Happy gardening.

Recipe Idea

Preparation time: Less than 30 mins

Cooking time: 30 mins

Serves 4

Ingredients

1 tbsp olive oil

2 garlic cloves, finely chopped

600g/1lb 5oz parsnips, cut into 1cm/½-inch cubes

½ tsp dried red chilli flakes, plus extra to serve

1 litre/1¾ pints hot vegetable stock

200ml/7fl oz double cream

salt and freshly ground black pepper

For the croutons

3 thick slices good bread, such as sourdough, cut into 2.5cm/1-inch pieces

1 tbsp olive oil

55g/2oz Gruyere cheese, finely grated

Method

Preheat the oven to 200C/180C Fan/Gas 6. Heat the oil in a heavy-based saucepan over a medium heat. Add the chopped garlic and cubed parsnips and fry for 4–5 minutes, stirring occasionally. When they are golden add the chilli flakes and fry

Parsnip Soup

An easy luxurious autumnal soup for one more minute.

Pour in the stock, stir and bring everything to a simmer. Cover with the lid and cook for 12–15 minutes, or until the parsnips are tender.

Meanwhile, for the croutons, place the pieces of bread on a baking tray in a single layer and drizzle with the olive oil. Sprinkle over the cheese, and season with salt and pepper. Bake for 5–10 minutes until crisp and golden.

Remove the soup from the heat and blitz with a stick blender until smooth. Return to the heat, stir in the cream and heat through gently. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Serve the soup topped with the croutons and a sprinkling of chilli flakes for a little more kick.

CHRISTMAS LIGHTS SWITCH ON – CITY SET TO SHINE

Preston is set to be 'lit up' during the glittering Christmas Lights Switch On, on Saturday 23rd November from 5.30pm.

The city centre lighting scheme, funded by city centre businesses via the BID and Preston City Council, will span more than 1.5 miles and feature hundreds of thousands of super-bright LED bulbs which are 70% more energy efficient than traditional bulbs.

The Flag Market is once again expected to be packed with thousands of people as the city officially starts its countdown to Christmas. The event, funded by city centre businesses and organised by the BID, is being staged in partnership with Smooth Radio North West - the region's largest commercial radio station. Featuring a packed bill of performers, the event will include something for all the family before the switching on of the lights at around 7.45pm. Mark Whittle from Preston BID said: "The Switch On is the city's biggest free family show attracting thousands of people very year.

"Thanks to our partners and sponsors this year's event is set to be even better with some great live performers lining up for the show - everyone's invited; we look forward to seeing thousands of people making their way to the city centre and helping us launch Christmas in the Preston". The show will include a performance from 'Boyz on Block', a band fused together with leading members of some of the 90's and 00's biggest boy bands.

With a collective fifteen number ones and having sold more than 30million records, Boyz On Block will perform some of the biggest hits from their respective bands, Five Another Level, Phats and Small and Boyzone.

The stage show will also feature a vocal performance, from Chloe Rose. Chloe is singer, 'Tik Tok' star and influencer with an online following close to 5million.

Younger members of the family will have the chance to enjoy a 'live' stage-performance from superheroes Catboy, Owlette and Gekko, stars of the hit PJ Masks series.

Local signed singer songwriter Harvey Brittain and his band will join the line-up which will also feature a upbeat set from 'Ska Face' a ten-piece ska and two-tone band from the county.

Organisers have also confirmed there's one more surprise still to come!

Group Programme Director of Smooth Radio North West, Jamie Griffiths, said: "We are so excited to turn on Preston's lights with a soulful evening of festive fun.

"The Christmas lights switch-on is always a huge event in Preston, attracting thousands to the city. Thank you to the people of Preston for continuing to tune into their favourite relaxing music mix as we celebrate another year as the region's biggest commercial radio station.* "

The event is sponsored by The Fishergate Shopping Centre, Preston's College, St George's Shopping Centre, The Walker Williams Group and Walton's Coach Hire.

Characters from PJ Masks will also be making an appearance in The Fishergate Centre and St George's Shopping Centre on the day of the event. For more information visit the Preston BID or Shop Preston Facebook pages, or visit
