Welcome

Welcome to your September issue. As schools and colleges begin to start back and society continues to reopen, it feels like a new beginning for many of us. Like the start of a new school year where you get new notebooks, pens and perhaps different shoes and teachers, things across society are beginning to feel novel again.

The same in our community magazine with some new advertisers, features and the beginning of a return to more community information and events. Let's hope this trend continues.

Times are tough, particularly for smaller businesses, so as things start to reopen please keep trade local by using local shops, trades and services where possible. We are here to champion local business so please use us.

Children's Feet

Children are usually born with perfect feet but they are vulnerable to deformity particularly while soft cartilage is forming into bone. If young feet are looked after they should stay fit and healthy throughout life. A child's foot is not a smaller replica of an adult's foot and has a number of distinguishing features:

- The foot is widest across the toes
- It is softer and more pliable
- It is rounder and plumper
- It is narrowest at the heel

Children develop at different rates. As a guide, children will start to crawl from about 9 months old. Between 10-18 months old, many children will be taking their first steps. At this time they will often appear to have bow legs, with feet spread wide apart and a characteristic wobble when they walk. You should always let your child develop walking skills and confidence at their own pace and if you have any concerns ask your health visitor.

Footwear

It's the time of year for thinking about new shoes for school and for the changing season. Properly fitted shoes are often more expensive than, say, buying shoes from the supermarket, but it's worth paying the extra to ensure that the shoes will cause no harm.

Specially trained shoe fitters will look at the length and width of your child's feet and ensure that the fastenings grip well to the foot and the heel doesn't slip. They will also check that there is sufficient room for the feet to grow into. Scrimping on plastic, or badly fitting shoes costs dear in the long run with blisters or even corns.

Go Barefoot!

Well-fitting shoes are essential when out and about, but going barefoot in a safe environment is good for normal development. In toddlers, wearing just socks or going barefoot helps develop the muscles in the feet and the grasping action of the toes. Plus, it's great to enjoy the feelings of different surfaces like carpet, cool tiles or soft sand.

Verrucae

Caused by the Human Papilloma Virus, verrucae are common on children's feet. They are usually caught in swimming pools and communal areas. The body's natural immunity fights the virus and often verrucae in small children will disappear in a few months. If they are painful, or have been present longer, it would be advisable to seek advice from a HCPC registered Chiropodist/Podiatrist.

Savoy Cabbage, Red Chilli and Lemon Oil Pasta

🕒 15 minutes to prepare 👥 4 servings

Instructions

Our savoy cabbage, chilli and lemon pasta works well as a tasty midweek meal.

Chefs Tip

*To adapt this recipe for meat eaters, add 100g saluted pancetta cubes.
This dish is perfect for used as a side dish for a summer Sunday roast, just omit the pasta.*

Method

1. Heat the lemon oil over a medium heat in a sauté pan.
2. Add the garlic and chilli and cook for 2 minutes.
3. Add the shredded cabbage and cook, lid on for 8 minutes stirring occasionally.
4. Cook the pasta as per pack instructions, drain and keep warm.
5. Season the cabbage with salt and pepper.
6. Toss the cabbage through the pasta and serve in warmed pasta bowls.
7. Drizzle over extra lemon oil and enjoy.

Ingredients

3tbsp lemon oil
3 cloves garlic, sliced
2 red chillies, sliced
1 savoy cabbage, core removed and shredded
Salt and pepper
To Serve

AWARENESS DAYS ... ORGANIC SEPTEMBER MONTH 2020

Start: September 1st
End: September 30th

The UK's biggest celebration of all things organic has started

Organic September, organised each year by the Soil Association, aims to encourage everyone to be more organic. Whether that means making over your diet or just making one small change to your weekly shopping, it all contributes to changing our food system and our world for the better.

Visit the SA website for exclusive offers from organic brands, redeemable both online and in selected stores, making it easier to #ChooseOrganic this September. You'll find ideas on 30 Ways to Organic Your September, recipes from chefs, brands and bloggers, and competitions with prizes including an organic break in Devon, a year's supply of organic coffee, a hamper of organic goodies, and free pizza.

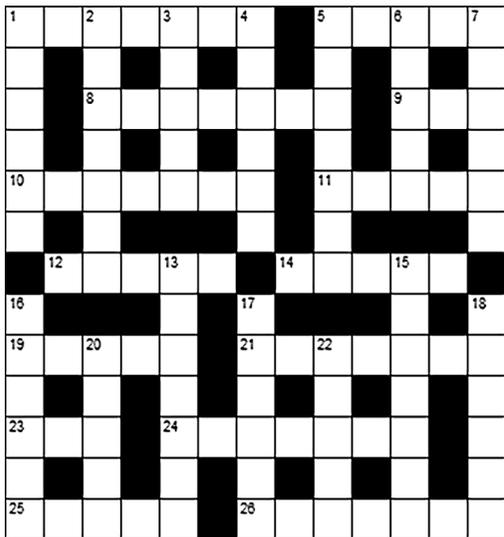

There's also a guide to the special events happening nationwide throughout the month – and on Saturday, September 15, independent shops across the country will be celebrating organic, offering samples, tastings and demos.

Find out more and get involved at <https://www.soilassociation.org/organic-living/organic-september/>

Dazzling Dahlias

Over the past few years, I've fallen in love with dahlias for their ability to provide autumn colour. I think Dahlias are like the glamorous friend who arrives late to the party, fresh and full of life, outshining all the other guests who are a bit tired and past their best...or maybe that's just me being fanciful.

Either way the vibrant colours, tactile textures and stunning petal formations make the Dahlia queen of the September garden for me.

The dahlia originates from Mexico and there are 30 species and around 20,000 cultivars! Don't let its exotic past fool you; it hails from high mountain regions so is happy in cool, wet, and windy conditions. It doesn't matter what size your garden is there is a dahlia for you, from dwarf varieties to giants. There is even one variety (Imperialis) that can reach 6m (20 feet) in the wild in its native South America.

If your garden is on the exposed side, or you live in the north then look for the pompom varieties as the colourful globes are very hardy, standing up to the worst of the British weather.

Dahlia bulbs are comprised of tubers. In order to sprout the tuber must have an 'eye'. If you live in a very cold area, you can dig up the tubers at the end of the season and plant them out again the following year. My garden is quite sheltered, so I simply cut them down and mulch them. I learned the hard way that mulched dahlias survive and thrive much better than unmulched plants. Dahlia tubers are hungry beasts and don't take kindly to being undernourished. The first year I planted them I didn't mulch and the second year the flowers were sparse and undersized. On the advice of a neighbour I fed them, mulched them, and watered them through the hot season, and they returned in full vigour the following year.

Dahlias come in the most amazing array of colours.

'Lubega Power Yellow-Orange' sounds like a toilet cleaner but is in fact a gloriously tropical dwarf bedding dahlia which produces masses of double flowers well into autumn if you deadhead it regularly. At 30cm you can plant it at the front of the border or in window boxes to brighten the duller of days.

Dahlia 'Cornel Brons' produces wonderful round copper-coloured architectural flowers. They are long-lasting and make spectacular cut flowers. They look good in the middle of a border because they grow to 90cm.

For gardeners who prefer a more subtle or unusual colour palette:

Dahlia 'Cafe aux Lait' produces enormous exquisite blooms in a soft apricot-pink colour, which fade to vintage cream. It's the perfect dahlia for creating a focal point toward the back of the border as it grows to 120cm.

Dahlia 'Creme de Cassis' has stunning two-tone petals on water lily-shaped flowers. It grows to 90cm so is good for the middle of a border and also looks fabulous in a big pot.

The Clockmaker's Daughter by Kate Morton

Getting married is one of those big events in your life that changes everything. For Elodie, plans for her upcoming wedding are being pulled away from her by her controlling future mother-in-law. Elodie works as an archivist in London and one day discovers an old satchel, an old photo, and an old sketch of a large house that will change everything and lead Elodie on a quest to discover the truth about the house and the lady in the photograph. Was she meant to find these items and how are they ultimately connected to her own past?

Kate Morton is known for epic sagas – and at nearly 600 pages this is no exception. Told in multiple timelines, the action moves swiftly from the present to the 1880s, the early 1900s, and the 1940s as the story of the house and its inhabitants unfold. With a vast cast of characters this does require some concentration to keep track of who's who, and sometimes the story changes time period just as you were becoming engrossed. However, it is worth persevering.

Part love story, part ghost story, part murder mystery, and part commentary on social class divide in the Victorian era Morton brings the various stories vividly to life on the page. Who is the clockmaker's daughter and how did she come to linger at Birchwood Manor? And how will this all help Elodie come to terms with the path that her own life is about to take?

Animal Antics: The Leaping Lion by Lucy Courtenay

Brian is an excitable lion cub. His dad is the King of the Savannah, so a lot is expected of him. He tries to be big and intimidating, like his dad. There is one thing that Brian loves doing more than anything else and that is playing leapfrog. He is the best in the savannah and is always searching for the next big thing to leapfrog over. So, when he tackles his biggest leapfrog ever and fails, he is mortified when all the other animals laugh at him. Humiliated he vows to never leapfrog again.

That is, until he learns that the Animal Olympics are going to be held in the savannah and leapfrog is one of the events! Can he pluck up the courage to compete and risk more humiliation? Will he make his dad proud?

This lovely short chapter book (92 pages) is perfect for young animal lovers, combining animal facts – such as the fact that female lions do most of the hunting – with a fun story. Who knows, maybe lions really ARE good at leapfrog?

Korean Pulled Chicken Nachos

Ingredients

- 4 chicken breasts
- 8g sesame seeds
- 1 tsp ginger purée
- 1 tsp garlic purée
- 3 tbsp soy sauce
- 1/2 tsp chilli flakes
- 2 tbsp honey
- 2 tbsp sesame oil
- 2 tbsp Sriracha sauce
- 1/4 tsp cracked black pepper
- 1/4 tsp sea salt
- 125ml chicken stock
- 4 soft tortillas
- 150g mozzarella grated cheese

Method

1. Preheat the oven to 200°C. Place chicken breasts into an ovenproof dish. Add the sesame seeds, ginger purée, garlic purée, soy sauce, honey, chilli flakes, sesame oil, Sriracha sauce, sea salt and pepper. Mix to coat the chicken evenly.
2. Pour the chicken stock on top of the marinated chicken. Cook for 8-10 minutes before covering with foil to create a tight seal. Return to the oven and reduce the heat to 150°C, for 2hrs.
3. Brush the tortillas both sides with oil and cut into triangles. Lay evenly on greaseproof paper, bake until they start gaining colour (as they will be baked again just before serving).
4. Shred the cooked chicken with two forks in a bowl. Pour in the remaining juices from the oven dish and combine.
5. Tip the tortilla chips on to a greaseproof lined baking tray, scatter over the pulled chicken and then top with a layer of mozzarella cheese.
6. Bake for 7-8 minutes until the cheese is melted and the tortilla chips have started to brown.
7. Remove from oven. Garnish with salsa, slices of spring onion, carrot ribbons and fresh coriander. Finish by drizzling fresh plain yoghurt across the top.

Garolla can save a lot of space inside your garage. Rolls up vertically into a box. Takes only 8 inches of headroom! Opens vertically so you can park up close to the door. Remotely open/close the garage even from inside your car.

For your peace of mind

Whilst we totally appreciate that the last few months have been very difficult for everyone, we feel like it just might be the time to start getting excited about adventures you can plan for in 2021, and put something in the diary to look forward to.

For some, a holiday close to home may be preferred. For others, something further afield. You may be considering a beach holiday, a city break or an ocean or river cruise, something more bespoke, "tailor-made" for you. No matter what you prefer, our door is "open for business" and we would love to have the opportunity to arrange your holiday for you.

You may be travelling as a family with children, or a multi-generational family celebrating being together, a couple on honeymoon or celebrating retirement, a solo traveller, or if you're just wanting to get away. Whoever you are, we can arrange the holiday you are looking for...

Working with reputable partners and offering local departures, these include...

Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines

SEABOURN

PRINCESS CRUISES

Are You Happy?

It's an interesting question...with an interesting answer. It turns out that happiness is not a destination; it isn't something to be achieved. Happiness is something that resides inside you. You can be happy wherever you are, right now.

Define happiness for you - Happiness isn't the same as pleasure. It isn't a single emotion. Happiness requires you to go through the pain and struggles of life and deal with them like everyone else. How you react to pain and struggle defines your happiness. As you deal with and solve your own problems and those of others you actually become happier.

More doesn't mean happier - More money, a faster car and a bigger house won't make you happier, because happiness comes from within. Beyond the financial security we need to provide a place to live, pay for essential services and food to eat, we don't need a whole lot more. More is nice, but not essential for happiness.

Find your thing - You're not going to excel at most things in life but all of us have at least one thing we're great at. It could be knitting, playing piano, or making wooden bird houses, but find it, enjoy it, and make it yours. You don't have to be world class, just good enough to give you pleasure.

Find your values - Consciously think about your thoughts and feelings. Don't stay in a job you hate to buy things you don't need. Don't hang out with the group of friends who drag you down when you can spend time with one or two who lift you up, and definitely don't keep saying yes to things you don't want to do.

This isn't a magic formula for happiness, but it's a start. Happiness, like anything worthwhile takes practice. Be happy.

Parkinson's UK Preston & District Branch Update

It has been a while since our last meeting took place in March, so we thought it was time to update you all on the current situation. So many things have changed because of Covid 19, but rest assured that we, the Committee, are still here & are still working for you.

We were hoping by now that we would be in a position to start returning to our usual activities, with some modification around social distancing. However, the reintroduction of restrictions in the city of Preston & the advice from Parkinsons UK have prevented this. We have taken the decision reluctantly to delay the restart of Circuit Training & Yoga until the New Year, hopefully in January 21. As soon as a date has been arranged, we will circulate the details.

We have also had to make a decision not to hold any group meetings before December. On a positive note, we would like to invite all members & friends to a 'Jacob's Join' type get together at St. Anthony's on Wednesday the 9th December at 7pm. This will be instead of our usual Christmas Party. Everyone can bring their own food, crockery and cutlery, to comply with guidelines & keep everyone as safe as possible. The group will provide tea & coffee & a drink from the bar. This will be a great opportunity to meet up & see one another. Can everyone who wishes to attend please confirm numbers to myself at malcolmtwright@hotmail.com. This is vital so that in conjunction with St Anthonys, a risk assessment & social distancing measures can be put in place.

As a committee, we are concerned that we do not lose the following that we have here in Preston. This year we went onto Facebook as Preston Parkinsons Group. Membership has been steadily growing & we would urge all of you that have access to social media to join so that we can give you information about our activities & help with anything you need to know. This year, as you will appreciate, we have not been able to do many of our collections and so our fundraising has been greatly reduced. We have donated £2,000 to Parkinsons UK following their appeal to branches for help because of their lack of income. The group is still solvent but we need to conserve funds to cover Circuit Training, Yoga & our other commitments for the coming year. It is with regret that we have had to abandon the Christmas Hampers for this year. The cost & logistics of this operation make it impractical. We are very sorry that this has to be the case & we hope that you will all understand the reasons why. We will make every effort to reinstate hampers for next year.

Please can we ask you to be patient, we will not be defeated by this & we will come back to something near normality. Let us make the most use of the Facebook group as we can to maintain contact. If anyone has problems finding us on there, please email Malcolm on malcolmtwright@hotmail.com for assistance.

To finish, thank you all for your efforts in the past, on collections, yoga, circuit training, helping with meetings and raffles and turning up to support each other. Please stay sane, stay safe and we hope to see as many of you as possible at St. Anthonys on the 9th December at 7pm.

Best wishes from everyone on the committee.

Support for Local People who have been Affected by Cancer and Bereavement

CancerHelp (Preston) Ltd will be re-starting 1-2-1 face to face work from its Vine House Cancer Support Centre in Ribbleson from Monday 30th August 2020.

The online (zoom) and telephone sessions which have been available throughout lockdown, will continue for people who are uneasy about being out and about at the moment.

As a local independent charity, CancerHelp was fortunate in receiving funding from the National Lottery Community Fund. This will enable support to be available for people affected by cancer; those who have lost someone due to COVID-19 and also includes children and young people who have received a cancer diagnosis or been affected by a bereavement. This funding also means that as there is additional capacity, there are no long waiting lists to access services.

CancerHelp can support people affected by cancer and those bereaved due to Cancer or COVID-19 living in and around the following areas: Preston, Chorley, South Ribble and Garstang. All its services are offered free of charge.

If you think you would like to speak with one of the Team
please telephone 01772 793344

Croston House, the Charity's centre in Garstang will open a little later.
